Marilyn Lee has been active in her community since she and her family settled in Mililani in 1981. Her four children attended Mililani public schools, graduated from college, and are pursuing their chosen careers. She served as President of the PTSA and helped establish the first School Community Based Management (SCBM) at Mililani High School. She is present Chair of the SCBM at Mililani Waena Elementary School.

Marilyn served on the Mililani Neighborhood Board #25 for 10 years. Community activities include the Lions, Friends of the Mililani Library, and American Cancer Society. She is the founder and President of the Central Oahu Caregivers Support Group, President of the Mililani Teen Support Organization, and Chair of the Legislative Action Committee of the Mililani Town Anti-Drug Committee.

In the Legislature, she served as Vice Chair of the Committee on Consumer Protection and Commerce. In 2002, her colleagues elected her Majority Floor Leader. She also sits on the Judiciary and Consumer Protection Committees and is honorary chair of the Women's Legislative Caucus.

Marilyn was named Flemming Fellow in 1999 and participated in the US/Japan Exchange on Women in Public Policy in 2000. She was a member of the first Foreign Policy Institute sponsored by the Center for Women Policy Studies in 2001. In 2003, she was selected as an Eleanor Roosevelt Fellow/

Marilyn moderates the television series, "The Kukui Connection" on legislative issues. She keeps her constituents informed through monthly reports on Mililani Interactive, the Mililani Town website, at home.ocean.com/mililani/.
